

Blackhawks break away

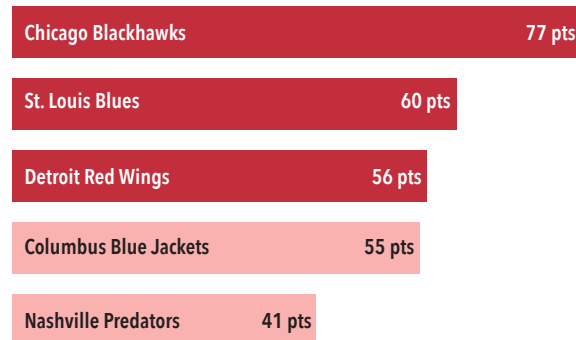

The 2012-13 NHL season, shortened by a lockout, began on January 19, 2013. Each team played 48 games. The Chicago Blackhawks finished the season first in the league, and went on to defeat the Boston Bruins 4-2 in the Stanley Cup Final. The Blackhawks began the season with a 24-game point streak, the third longest in NHL history.
